

A Part of the Main

*An exchange of poetry and conversation with
Philip Gross and Lesley Saunders*

In the summer of 2016, Lesley and Philip were exchanging poems in response to world events. With an awareness of the deep history of these islands sharpened by the upheavals of that year, these poems grew into A Part of the Main, an exploration of belonging and migration in an interconnected world.

Now published by Mulfran Press, handsomely designed by artist Valerie Coffin Price, this is poetry that invites you both to feel and think, and to join the conversation.

The event is held in association with Space4U, a volunteer led charity in Cardiff, supporting people who are seeking asylum or are refugees, providing clothing, recreational activities, English classes, a simple hot meal, food for the destitute, help and information.
